For Administrators/Managers

As an administrator for your company’s training, you can:

Select Learning
- Read the descriptions of the various certificates, the badges that make up the certificates, and the learning activities for each badge
- Determine which certificates/badges/activities your learners should complete (Note: certification will require completion of ALL basics, fundamentals, and certification title-related activities)

Monitoring Progress
- Monitor the progress learners are making through the education by viewing completed and open activities
- Monitor how well mentors are keeping up with approving the activities
- Review learners’ answers to experiential activity questions and requirements
- Review mentors’ grading/responses to the experiential activities
