ABOUT THE WQA CONVENTION & EXPOSITION

For more than 45 years, the WQA Convention & Exposition has been an all-encompassing event connecting the drinking water treatment industry’s technologies, know-how, education, training, networking and business opportunities with industry professionals in one convenient and cost-effective location.

Decision makers with purchasing power from the commercial, residential, and industrial segments of the water quality improvement industry come to WQA’s Convention & Exposition to connect with exhibitors who are uniquely qualified to help them solve the issues they are dealing with in their day-to-day business lives.

Be part of the solution, reserve your exhibit space today!
